TODAY AT ST. JOHN'S

TODAY AT ST. JOHN'S

Join us after the 9:30 a.m. service for Advent Wreath Making in the Parish Hall. This parish-wide tradition is a wonderful way for individuals, families, and children of all ages to begin the season together. Come create, connect, and enjoy the start of Advent with your St. John's community. Then return this evening for Advent Lessons and Carols at 5:00 p.m. This uniquely Anglican service, rooted in the tradition of King's College, Cambridge, weaves together scripture and music to trace the hope and longing of God's people as we prepare for Christ's coming. Scan the QR code for a personal invitation from our Organist and Director of Music, Simon Morley. A reception will follow the service.

Advent Lessons and Carols

December 7th | 5:00 p.m.

Lessons and Carols is a beautiful service of scripture and song that invites us to pause, listen, and prepare our hearts for the coming of Christ.

"DO YOU DESIRE TO BE BAPTIZED?"

-BCP pg 301

Holy Baptism is full initiation by water and the Holy Spirit into Christ's Body, the Church—a bond that can never be broken. Our next opportunity for baptism will be on the Feast of the Baptism of the Lord, January 11. A baptism preparation class will be held on January 4, with a rehearsal on January 10.

St. John's Lenten Devotional

Advent is a wonderful time to begin preparing our hearts for the next penitential season of the Church year. St. John's will again publish a Lenten devotional written by members of our congregation, and you are invited to contribute a reflection of up to one page. A brief Zoom info session with writing tips and Q&A will be held at 7:00 p.m. on Thursday, December 11. Devotionals are due Wednesday, January 21. For details and the Zoom link, please contact Scott Neumeister (scottneumeister@hotmail.com) or Marci Thomas (marcithomas2018@gmail.com).
